SAFETY NOTE

The Llanberis Path and Snowdon Mountain Railway cross above Clogwyn Coch. Walkers who are not wearing, or carrying the appropriate equipment are advised not to walk this path in winter conditions (normally November - March/April), when ground conditions can lead to serious falls.

Don't be tempted to walk along the railway! It leads along high, narrow ledges on steep slopes that can be very dangerous on foot.

Distance: 9 miles (14½km) (there and back)

Ascent: 3199 feet (975 metres)

Time: About 6 hours (there and back)

Start/Finish: Far end of Victoria Terrace, Llanberis, off the A4086 (SH 581 594)

Map: Ordnance Survey Explorer OL 17 (Snowdon & Conwy Valley)

1. The Llanberis path starts at far end of Victoria Terrace, which leads down from the mini roundabout opposite the Royal Victoria Hotel at the southern end of the village.
2. Go through the gate next to the cattle grid and follow the steep road. The road will pass Pen y Ceunant Isaf, and then through a farmyard. Shortly after going through the farmyard, follow the prominent path on the left signposted 'Snowdon'.
3. The path climbs gradually, and in a while you will pass the ruins of an old cottage on your left, and Hebron station below on the right. You will shortly reach a mountain gate and a stile.
4. From the mountain gate the path will continue to climb gradually and parallel with the railway.

5. Shortly, you will walk under the railway bridge.

6. After going under the bridge the path will continue to climb gradually with the railway on your left. You will shortly pass the Halfway House, where refreshments are sold in the summer months. From here on the path will begin to climb more steeply.

7. In a while you will reach the bottom of Allt Moses, where the path forks. Keep to the left and follow the path that climbs up the slopes of Llechog.

8. At the top of Allt Moses you will walk under the railway bridge. Once you have walked under the bridge, Cwm Glas Bach will come into sight on your left. Be careful on this section.

9. After Cwm Glas Bach the path climbs steeply up the slopes of Carnedd Ugain with Clogwyn Coch on your right. Take care on this part of the path. You will shortly reach Bwlch Glas.

10. At Bwlch Glas a standing stone marks the spot where the Pyg Track and Miners' Track join the Llanberis Path. Over your right shoulder, on the other side of the railway, you will see the Snowdon Ranger path rising up from Bwlch Cwm Brwynog and crossing the railway to join the Llanberis Path.

You are now on the final leg of your walk up Snowdon. Walking at a leisurely pace, you can expect to be on the summit in around a quarter of an hour.

11. On your way down from the summit, a little further down from the Bwlch Glas standing stone, keep left - the path to the right follows the Snowdon horseshoe which leads over Carnedd Ugain and Crib Goch.

Remember!

Though you are in the Snowdonia National Park, please remember that the path crosses the privately owned farm and grazing lands of Hafodty Newydd, Clogwyn y Gwin and Ffridd Uchaf, where dogs are not welcomed unless under close control or on a lead.

On your way to the summit you will see evidence of essential footpath restoration work carried out by the National Park Authority. Please keep to the footpath to prevent further erosion.
